

Elvin C. Giles

Heber City — Our beloved husband, father, grandfather and friend, Elvin C. Giles, passed away November 7, 1996, in St. George, Utah.

He was born April 18, 1909, in Heber City, Utah to Noah and Maria Christensen Giles. He lost his mother at birth. He married Susie Halladay from Circleville, Utah, in the Manti Temple on July 28, 1933. He attended school in Heber City, went to Snow College, where he played football. Graduated in Education from Snow and later graduated from Brigham Young University. He taught school in Heber City for 41 years, during which time he was principal for 32 years. He was active in the LDS Church and served two missions, one in the Eastern States (1929-31) and the second in Arkansas with his wife (1975-77). They worked in the Provo Temple and attended regularly in the St. George Temple until health problems occurred. He worked in the Sunday School Superintendency for 18 years in Wasatch Stake, and in many other church positions.

He is survived by his loving wife Susie; a brother, Clarence (Edith) Giles of Mesa, Arizona, two sisters, Donna Coleman of Bloomington, Utah and LaRue (Jack) Adamson of Las Vegas, Nevada. He is also survived by two sons, Glade (Marilyn) of Orem and Gary (Vera Jean) of Cedar City; 11 Grandchildren: Peter Dirk (Leslie), Randall Scott (Lindy), David Johnstone (Cheryl), James Andrew (Christy), Lewis Bradley, Dana Lee (Daril) Magelby, Lara Lynne (Bruce) Reber, Candace Anne (Ruben) Togisala, Derek Alan (Courtnei), Jennifer Dawn (Thomas) Orrock, Nathan N. and 11 Great-Grandchildren. He was preceded in death by three sisters: Ramona Hall, Genile Winterton and Myrtle Michael.

His sense of humor and love of life will be remembered and missed by those who knew and loved him.

Funeral services Monday, November 11, 1996, 11:00 A.M. in the Heber 4th Ward Chapel (176 W. 500 S.). Friends may call at Olpin Mortuary Sunday 6 - 8 P.M. and at the chapel Monday one hour prior to services. Burial, Heber City Cemetery.

WASATCH COUNTY PRESIDENTS, DAUGHTERS OF UTAH PIONEERS

Jennie Hatch Turner

Emma Hatch Wherritt

Lettie Coleman Taise

Annie Lee Madsen Colman

Ida R. Warner

widower with five children, on Jan. 26, 1916. Six more children were born to them. Joseph died July 2, 1937, leaving Minnie with six children under 21 to rear.

Throughout her life she was active in Church and particularly in the Young and Relief Societies. She has done extensive genealogical work and maintains a keen interest in local, national and international affairs.

Utah Mother of the Year honoree was also recorded in 1954 to Mrs. Mima Broadbent of Salt Lake City, a native of Wasatch County. She was the wife of former Wasatch State President David A. Broadbent, and she herself had been state Relief Society President for many years before moving to Salt Lake City.

THE DAUGHTERS OF UTAH PIONEERS

Women in Wasatch County have kept alive the spirit of their pioneer heritage as they have actively worked in chapters of The Daughters of Utah Pioneers.

The DUP organization was begun in Salt Lake City on April 11, 1901 when a group of 54 women met at the home of Anna Taylor Hyde to discuss the need of a society to write the histories and achievements
